

THE MCNEIL CENTER FOR EARLY AMERICAN STUDIES

☞ Sixth Annual Undergraduate Research Workshop ☞

April 25-26, 2014

Friday, April 25 Friday Seminar

Historical Society of Pennsylvania, 1300 Locust Street

2:00-2:30 Meet with Friday Seminar speakers Andrew Cayton & Fred Anderson

3:00-5:00 Friday Seminar

Andrew R. L. Cayton, Miami University

Fred Anderson, University of Colorado

A Chapter from Imperial America, 1672-1764
(pre-circulated paper)

5:00-8:00 pm – Reception & Dinner

Saturday, April 26 Conference

Stephanie Grauman Wolf Room, MCEAS, University of Pennsylvania

9:15-9:45 am – Light Breakfast

9:45-10:00 am Welcome and Opening Remarks

William Carter, The College of New Jersey

10:00 -10:30 am

Kylie Woollard, Brigham Young University

Survival versus Success: Powhatan and the Struggle at Jamestown

Comment: Mairin Odle (NYU)

10:30-11:00 am

Adam Messenlehner, Gettysburg College
The Moravian Method: Converting Delaware Indians through Language, Lyrics, and Lovefeasts.

Comment: Lori Dagger (Penn)

11:00-11:30 am

Elise Peterson, Brigham Young University
Bred and Bawn in a Brier-Patch!': African-American Folklore as Day-to-day Resistance to Slavery

Comment: Lynne Feeley (Duke)

11:30-12:00 pm

Anna Lacy, The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey
Her Own Household Is Her Kingdom': Concepts of Domesticity in 19th Century Advice Literature

Comment: Sara Damiano (Johns Hopkins)

12:30-1:30 pm Lunch